Dear Traders,

This is a quick update for the 2019 Grains Bulletin Subscribers. In the last Weekly Report, I mentioned that I was waiting after March 8 to start trading, and my calculus was giving to me this week as the perfect time window for the beginning of the Uptrend. I do believe it is now the right time!

Always following the rules, I use area 895 with Soybeans, and I will be always LONG above it and always FLAT under it. With Corn, I use area 360, I will be always LONG above it and FLAT under it; I believe that also the level 370 can be significant, and a movement above it should confirm higher levels.

We are trading the May 2019 Contracts, of course.

We have been waiting for a long time, but the TIME has now arrived. Please, I am not God, I can be wrong! Use stops, as always. If I am right, we make big profits, if I am not, we take a little loss.... that's trading!

Good Trading!

Best Regards,
Daniele Prandelli
